On Tuesday, April 30, our partner Margaret E. Tahyar will testify before the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs at a public hearing regarding “Guidance, Supervisory Expectations, and the Rule of Law: How do the Banking Agencies Regulate and Supervise Institutions?”

Ms. Tahyar’s prepared testimony is available here, and draws upon her previously published article Are Banking Regulators Special?, available here, and her working paper Legal Interpretation is Not Like Reading Poetry – How to Let Go of Ordinary Reading and Interpret the Legal Framework of the Regulatory State, available here.

A livestream of the Committee’s hearing will be available at this link, beginning at 10:00 a.m. EST tomorrow.
