

Davis Polk Financial Services Regulatory Reform Tool—2020 Vision Edition

By The Davis Polk FinReg Team on January 6, 2020

POSTED IN ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING, BANK CAPITAL, BANK REGULATION, CFPB, CFTC, COMMUNITY REINVESTMENT ACT, DODD-FRANK, FDIC, FEDERAL RESERVE, FINTECH, LEGISLATION, LIQUIDITY, OCC, RESOLUTION, STRESS TESTING, TLAC, U.S. BASEL III, U.S. CONGRESS, VOLCKER RULE

Financial services regulatory reform will continue to be active in 2020, with developments percolating in all three branches of government. As we observe the changing landscape, here is the 2020 Vision Edition of our reference tool, which provides context and summarizes current developments across a range of key regulatory areas, agencies and actors. We will continue to track these issues and will provide another update in the next quarter.

The Davis Polk Financial Services Regulatory Reform Tool is available here.